MOBILE, ALA., Dec. 24, 1888.

Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: Having tried different doctors and their remedies for several years for back and kidney troubles, I found nothing successful until taking "The Texas Wonder," Hall's Great Discovery, and being rapidly cured, the old saying with railroad men is "God bless the man who invented the Pullman sleeping car," but I say "God bless the inventor of Hall's Texas Wonder."

Yours truly,
W. B. CLARK,
M. & O. R. R. Co., Mobile, Ala.

A TEXAS WONDER.

THE HUNTER'S HUNT.

Ladies and Gentlemen dole in the Moonlight Fox Chase.

The merry party that went out on Wednesday night to join in the fox hunt by moonlight had a most delightful time, and although they did not capture any of the five foxes that were started, there was plenty of excitement to keep every one on the quiet. Shortly after leaving the city the hounds started upon one and in rapid succession others were driven from their places of concealment, until five had been brought out for the amusement of the party.

The party comprised the following ladies and gentlemen: Misses Neillie and Jessie Dempsey, Miss Myrtle Franklin, Mrs. M. F. McCook, C. F. Goodman, Col. Tressler, Dr. Lester and Sheriff Fenell, and they presented a fine appearance as they departed on their chargers for the chase. There was quite a stir when they moved away, and it is no wonder the game was frightened and kept out of the way of the hounds.

The fox was almost inaccessible on account of the dense growth of underbrush, or the result might have been different and the hounds ended in triumph over the sly Reynard.

HOSE COMPANY NO. 4.

Another addition to the Gainesville Fire Department was made this week, when a number of our boys of about 15 or 16 years of age met on Tuesday evening and organized Hose Company No. 4. There were 10 of them on the list, and they have a cart with a reel that carries 200 feet of hose, one nozzle and the usual number of spopers, etc.

Douglas Ferry is the foreman and T. Pinkerton is assistant foreman, and these young firemen are now pining for a chance to distinguish themselves and win a bunch of "hero medals." It is not a bad idea to train them in the work and they should be cheered on in their good work.

In the mayor's court yesterday morning three men appeared at the bar of justice (the only bar in the city) and were disposed of as follows: John Coulter, drunk on imported goods from Osaka, $2.50 and costs; George Evans, drunk, $5 and costs; Chas. Lundy, disorderly conduct, $5 and costs. All gathered in by Marshal Pinkerton.

THE LUMBER DEAL.

Particulars Regarding the Deal of W. J. Carter of This City.

A report from Lakeland, in speaking of the activity in business at that point, says:

"Probably the most important business transaction recorded in this vicinity is that which has just been closed, wherein the Carter Manufacturing Company, a new corporation has acquired the lumber mills and other interests of W. J. Carter, located about six miles east of Lakeland, at Carter's station. The new owners under the corporation are Leonard Carter, president, of Jesup, Ga.; C. W. Dean, vice-president; J. J. Burnett, treasurer, vice of Georgia, and H. B. Carter, secretary, of Lakeland. The deal involved the passing of $225,000, and included about 650,000 acres of pine and cypress timber, mills, mules, stones, machinery, etc.

"The general headquarters of the corporation will be at Lakeland, though the actual office work will be at Carter's, as heretofore. The gentlemen composing the corporation are well known throughout Georgia and Florida as successful and wealthy business men, and it is generally conceded that this property has passed into good hands. H. B. Carter has long been a resident of Lakeland and will still retain his residence here, as will Mr. Burnett, in all probability.

"W. J. Carter, who built up this saw mill business, will retire for the present, and take a much needed rest."

Mr. Carter's family resides in this city and he will no doubt remain here and be at his ease for a time, until he tackles some other venture. His many friends wish him much more prosperity.

TAILOR-MADE SKIRTS.

Man-Tailored From Men's Woolens Are the Popular Kind Today.

They are made strictly to measure, pressed into perfect shape by men tailors, and retain their shape after constant wear.

They cost no more than ready-made skirts, but wear twice as long and look genial even after constant service.

Every pattern being drafted to the measure of the lady who orders, a perfect fit is guaranteed in every instance. You take no chance whatever.

Call on G. F. Dorman, at Harper & Chase's music store, who is the local agent for the Warrington Woolen and Worsted Mills, Chicago, and he will show you the woolens and the proper styles for fall wear. Prices very reasonable. d2

A Card.

To the Public: To correct a wrong impression that is abroad in the city with reference to the difference existing between the undersigned former employee and the Pepper Publishing and Printing Co., we desire to state through The Sun that it is absolutely false that a strike is on hand for higher pay. The true status of the affair is this: We have been working nine and a half hours a day, and have asked for eight and a half hours. Other establishments in nearly every section of the State have long since agreed to this in behalf of labor, and that the Pepper house should persist in demanding of us employees longer service than is required by other employers, is unjust. We are all residents of Gainesville, spending our earnings with our own people, and are not at all desirous of migrating to other fields, away from home and friends, to make room for the unprincipled scabs who are endeavoring to fill our places. This is a woman's strike, and true men will be manly enough to keep out of it.

To the Fathers and Mothers of the ladies who are filling, or who are contemplating filling the places of those out on this strike: You should consider the nature of the strike, also those affected by it, and be sure you are right before acting. This is a just cause and deserves just recognition at your hands. WOMEN STRIKERS.
